Your one-of-a-kind finds are then given a second chance to be loved again at Savers® and Value Village® stores. Together, we can Rethink Reuse® by protecting the planet and keep reusable items out of landfills.

As a certified B Corp and Public Benefit Corporation, Helpsy's mission is to keep clothing out of the trash, provide honorable work, and earn growing profits.

Helpsy collects, sorts, and trades secondhand clothes and shoes. In 2024 alone, our team collected over 32 million pounds of clothes, shoes, and other items.
